EXCELLENCE IN THE HOME

SUSTAINABLE LIVING professional approaches to housework

How does work in the home influence social dynamics, legal frameworks and ultimately entire social systems?

SUSTAINABLE LIVING : Professional approaches to housework, an international and multidisciplinary conference sponsored by Home Renaissance Foundation, brings together experts to study the specific nature of housework, and further our understanding of the contribution that it brings to social sustainability.

A sustainable society needs well-rounded people, whose fundamental development depends on a competently managed home with an awareness of sustainable practice.

SUSTAINABLE LIVING
professional approaches to housework

“SUSTAINABLE LIVING : Professional approaches to housework” aims to:

- Fill the gap in the present concern for sustainability
- Understand the link between housework and sustainability
- Recast the definition of housework
- Stimulate and channel innovation
- Explore the professional elements of homemaking

The Conference seeks to provide a holistic understanding of the work of the home and the individuals it serves, through interdisciplinary research and dialogue.
